@JG_CSTT

In yet another completely outrageous ruling from the Southern District of New York, Analisa Torres has ruled against me in Goodman v Bouzy. Is there any justice in #NewYork or is every judge controlled by the #FBI? #Lawfare institute director Ben Wittes emailing FBI director James Comey about how they intended to jam up @CharlesOrtel, @RogerJStoneJr and @corsijerome1 was determined to be irrelevant, absurd! Christopher Bouzy and the rest of these defendants will be brought to justice if it is the last thing I do. This case is already on appeal in the second circuit. Take note, this order was issued on the day #ValerieCaproni's unconstitutional sanction against me expired. These judges are anti constitutional and they need to be impeached. Our justice system has been hijacked. This is tyranny everyone, it isn't coming, it's here.

Defendants.

ANALISA TORRES, District Judge:

Plaintiff pro se, Jason Goodman, brings this action against Defendants Christopher Ellis Bouzy, Bot Sentinel, Inc., George Webb Sweigert, David George Sweigert, Benjamin Wittes, Nina Jankowicz, Adam Sharp, Margaret Esquenet, the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Seth Berlin, and Maxwell Mishkin, alleging fraud, defamation, abuse of process, and civil conspiracy. Am. Compl. ¶¶ 52–92, ECF No. 100. As discussed below, the Court has referred several motions to the Honorable James L. Cott for a report and recommendation. See ECF No. 268.

On November 28, 2023, Judge Cott issued a Report and Recommendation (“R&R”), ECF No. 269, recommending, inter alia, that the Court (1) grant the motion of the Academy, Sharp, and Esquenet (the “ATAS Defendants”) at ECF No. 241 to amend the judgment entered in this case to include a filing injunction prohibiting Goodman from filing any additional suits or claims against them without first obtaining leave of court; (2) grant the application of Bouzy, Bot Sentinel, Inc., Berlin, and Mishkin (the “Bouzy Defendants”) at ECF No. 243, seeking the same relief; (3) deny the ATAS Defendants’ motion for attorney’s

GABRIEL W. GORENSTEIN, United State Magistrate Judge

Plaintiff Jason Goodman filed this action against the City of New York, the New York Police Department (“NYPD”), various named and unnamed NYPD officers and employees, X Corp., Elon Musk, and Adam Sharp. See Complaint, filed Oct. 31, 2023 (Docket # 1) (“Compl.”). Goodman has recently obtained a clerk’s certificate of default as to defendant Musk. See Clerk’s Certificate of Default, filed March 22, 2024 (Docket # 83). While it is unclear to the Court whether the filings in this case show proper service as to defendant Musk, it is unnecessary to reach that issue at this time.

The Court has examined the briefing made in connection with X Corp.’s motion to dismiss the complaint, see Docket ## 19, 40, 47, and it appears that the arguments made in that motion would also govern any claims as to Musk, who is alleged to be the “owner” of X Corp, see Compl. ¶ 18(b). Additionally, the complaint arguably fails to show that Musk was personally involved in or should be vicariously liable as to any alleged wrongful conduct.

Accordingly, plaintiff is hereby ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE why the claims as to Musk should not be dismissed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim. Such showing shall be made by means of a memorandum of law compliant with Local Civil Rule 7.1(a)(2) filed on or before April 8, 2024. If X Corp. has views on this matter that may be helpful to the Court, it may address them in a response filed by April 22, 2024. Plaintiff may file any reply by April 29, 2024.

Finally, plaintiff shall not file any letter seeking permission to make a motion for a default judgment against Elon Musk (or any such motion itself) until this Order to Show Cause is resolved.

SO ORDERED.
